Library News/Needs: Library Director Deanna showed us one of the mugs purchased for winter reading prizes and reported on the successful Anne Frank programs. She went over some opportunities for giving that the library has coming up in the next year. After discussion, Deanna Sweet made a motion to sponsor the following programs: Under the Radar ($500), Halloween fun day ($500), Monthly pizza programs for the teens ($50 per month for the rest of the school year- 400). And to purchase the following items: 2 sewing machines for programs and the sharable collection, metal detector for the sharable collection ($549.97), and up to $300 for a new projector for the Tamarack Room. Total of $2249.95. The motion was seconded by Patty and approved.

Book Sale recap and upcoming- September's book sales brought in $580. October's sale is on the 21st. Patty has scheduled all workers with Janet taking the last spot available that night. October will be our last sale of the year.

Old Business

1. Celebration of the Season – Samples of fliers were handed out for discussion. Some wording will be changed, and Mary will have the fliers printed out for pickup at the library. Discussion of businesses and when to ask for donations. We are requesting them to be brought to the library by November 19th (Friday). November 22 (Monday) will be workday for packaging and getting the items ready. Luanne Feutz reported that the Book Babes will once again support and will get together to package their items before the 22nd. Our 11th annual Celebration of the Season will be November 30 – December 3 and will be held in the Tamarack Room like last year.
